

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

This letter is in reference to Shaun van Oorde-Grainger Shaun Van Oorde-Grainger who was an assistant for Dardi Rock, a one night event for young indigenous people in Perth featuring live bands and free films.

Shaun was an indispensable part of the Dardi Rock team, and it quite simply wouldn't have been successful without his help. He distributed flyers, suggested musicians and collected lighting and PA equipment and ran other errands.

Dardi Rock was run entirely by volunteers and Shaun was the most dependable of all who were involved. Despite pressure and short notice he was always there to help and never got flustered. It was a relief to have him on the team.

I would highly recommend Shaun for any future employment or opportunities.

Sincerely

Bonnie Davies

Coordinator of Dardi Rock
